Clash Over Evidence Brings Early Adjournment

DEFENSE SEEKING TO SHOW BOYKIN KNEW OF GAMING

Black's Objection Sustained on Ground That Solicitor-General Is Not on Trial in Probe.

SAY BOYKIN SETTLED $2,000 BOND FOR $800

Cases of Arthur Mitchell and of Strossnider, Alleged Swindler, Again Aired Before Committee.

The Monday night session of the councilman investigating committee ended rather abruptly when Attorney Robert Jones, representing the police and detective force defense, requested adjournment, saying that the defense was not sure what evidence was admissible and what would be excluded, in view of rulings against evidence offered to show laxity in the office of Solicitor John A. Boykin.

The differences over the testimony began when M. E. Garrison was describing the swindling operations which had gleaned $4,300 from his hard-earned resources. The witness was telling of a complaint he made to Solicitor Boykin, when Eugene R. Black, assisting the prosecution, objected. On a vote of the committee, Mr. Black's objection was sustained on the ground that the committee was investigating the city officials and not Mr. Boykin. Mr. Jones and Judge Hines, for the defense, said that certain features of the same transaction with which they were dealing had been introduced by the prosecution and that it was just that they should give evidence as to other angles of the same transactions.

Efforts of Defense. Their effort was to show that Solicitor Boykin knew of the existence and operation of Floyd Woodward's San Souel hotel gambling joint and of "Shoe" Mark's establishment on Houston street; that he did not offer to prosecute the cases himself, nor inform the police of the condition. After this discussion, several witnesses were presented, but at 10:15 o'clock Mr. Jones requested adjournment until Tuesday night. "We thought we understood the committee's attitude," he said, "but it seems that we did not. We have several more witnesses here, but we doubt if the committee would admit their testimony."

The defense also brought witnesses forward to testify that the bond of $2,000 assessed against one Fred Moyné, alias Costello, charged with larceny after trust in 1917, had been settled for a consideration of $800, and that the bondsmen, before the forfeiture of the bond, were certain enough of that reduction to take that sum as security against losing any of the money they had signed for. John Davis, one of the bondsmen, testified, but said that he had no conversation with Solicitor Boykin on the point. He said that such settlements were frequently made—even on the day of forfeiture—but that he had never heard of the solicitor's participation in such a deal.

The case of Arthur J. Mitchell, from Chicago, and Strossnider, the man alleged to have swindled him, was again aired Monday night in the testimony of Detective E. L. Arthur, who told of signing affidavits.

GEORGIA CONCERN BRINGS NEW TURN IN U. S. MEAT DEAL

Carmichael Syndicate, of Jackson, Demands Compliance With Canned Goods Contract.

SENSATIONAL FACTS BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Georgians Appear Before Quartermaster General, Seeking Compensation for Being Stopped.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON.
Constitution Bureau, Raleigh Hotel.

Washington, May 2.—(By Constitution Leased Wire).—The near scandal arising out of the sale recently by the war department of $1,000,000 pounds of canned meats at $4 a pound, which is about one-quarter the packers' average wholesale prices today, the government guaranteeing 100 per cent purity under the pure food law, took another sensational turn today when James H. Carmichael and associates of Jackson, Ga., appeared before Quartermaster General Rogers, demanding that the government comply in compensation with a contract made with them through the branch of the quartermaster department in Atlanta, for the sale of $1,000,000 worth as a minimum of these goods.

More sensational, however, were the facts brought out at the conference. It appears that the Carmichael syndicate had already made, under a government contract as stated, in the neighborhood of $600,000 worth of the goods when they were stopped on their canned meat contract by the recent $1,000,000-pound sale. It developed also that the Carmichael syndicate was realizing an average of 14 1/2 per cent net to the government for the same meat that was subsequently sold on bloc to the Philadelphia syndicate at a great deal less than one-half that price.

These sales were being made by the Carmichael syndicate through merchandise brokers throughout the United States, and when the transaction was completed with the United States, and when the Philadelphia parties there were thirty carloads of these goods out of the Candler warehouse in Atlanta rolling towards the Pacific coast. The compensation to the Carmichael syndicate was a brokerage commission, and it is estimated that the gross losses to the government through the Philadelphia sale will not only amount to several millions of dollars more than the losses would have accrued by reason of the differential in market quotations at the time these goods were manufactured for the government in 1917 and 1918 and the present time, had the government continued the sale on a brokerage basis as arranged for through the prior contract with the Georgia parties, but will probably be confronted by the necessity of paying brokerage commissions under the Georgia contract as if this latter had been carried out to the letter.

The first major business deal of the Harding "business administration" is not only proving a potential political boomerang, but more costly to the American taxpayers than appeared at first on the surface.

SOLONS INVITED TO ATTEND NIGHT SHOW AT CAMP

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON.
Constitution Bureau, Raleigh Hotel.

Washington, D. C., May 2.—(By Constitution Leased Wire).—The Georgia delegation today received an invitation from Brigadier General Gordon, commanding the Infantry school, Camp Benning, Georgia, to attend the first-night demonstration arranged for the school. Senator Harris is replying that official business in Washington will prevent his acceptance. The members of both appropriations committees in the senate and house have been invited by General Gordon, and it is expected that several will attend.

CHANGE IS URGED IN CITY OFFICIAL ELECTION SYSTEM

Movement Started for Council to Elect Eight Department Heads, Now Named by People.

PUBLIC WILL BE HEARD BY COMMITTEE FRIDAY

At Same Time Resolutions on Killing Charter Boards and Raising Ad Valorem Tax Come Up.

A movement was started in city council Monday afternoon to remove from the people's hands and transfer to the general council the right to elect eight municipal department heads now chosen by popular vote.

The resolution, which was presented by Councilman H. N. Alford, seeks to vest power in council to elect the general manager of waterworks, the city controller, the warden, the superintendent of electrical affairs, the marshal, the building inspector, the recorder and the superintendent of construction. To accomplish the change would require a charter amendment authorized by the legislature, and the paper was referred to the charter revision committee in accordance with a rule of council by which all papers having to do with charter amendments must be passed on by this committee.

Referred to Committee. Resolutions to abolish the police, park, health and water boards—charter boards—and to increase Atlanta's ad valorem tax rate from $1.25 to $1.75, on the $100, both resolutions contingent on charter amendment enactment by the legislature, were also referred to the charter revision committee.

Councilman J. R. Nutting, chairman of the committee, has called a meeting for next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the public will be given an opportunity to be heard on either or all of the three papers.

Strong opposition is promised to Councilman Alford's proposal to take away the people's direct participation and hush their voice in the choice of municipal department heads. Councilman representatives were non-committal. The resolution was plainly a surprise to the members and they permitted it to go to the charter revision committee, as the rule requires, reserving debate until the measure is returned.

No Fight on Veto.

Supporters of charter board abolition made no fight on Mayor Key's veto of a resolution adopted overwhelmingly two weeks ago providing for dissolution of all charter boards. A motion to file the measure was offered and carried unanimously.

Immediately Councilman Fred C. Woodall and Councilman C. E. Buchanan introduced a new measure designating the police, park, health and water boards as boards to be abolished—complying with the mayor's request that council specify and name the boards it wished to end.

Councilman Ashley challenged a statement of the mayor that the request he disapproved, if passed by the legislature, would have killed the bond commission appointed to handle the proceeds of the recent $850,000 bond issue. The bond commission is an ordinance body, said the councilman, and, therefore, could not be included in a measure aimed at the charter boards. "The city planning commission would be affected," he continued, "but it wouldn't do the city much harm if it were abolished."

Council adopted a favorable report from the bureau of municipal research, recommending acceptance of $42,500, financial aid offered by Fulton county toward the purchase of a lot on which the city proposes to build a municipal market. The county cannot pay over the funds for the present, however, having been stopped by an injunction petition which is now pending in the Fulton superior court.

FEDERAL AGENTS INVITED TO FARM BY 'BONY' HOGAN

Defies Them to Prove That He Has Been Guilty of Killing Negroes on His Large Plantation.

OWEN CLARK DENIES GIVING INFORMATION

Says He Is One of Men Accused by Hogan and Tells of Trouble He Had With Planter.

BY MARION KENDRICK.
(Constitution Staff Correspondent.)

Dublin, Ga., May 2.—(Special).—"Bony" Hogan, owner of Georgia's alleged second murder farm," tonight "only defied federal authorities to deny that he was guilty of killing negroes on his large plantation, thirteen miles from here, and invited them to visit his place at any time to question the blacks and dig for bodies so long as they desired."

Developments in the case came thick and fast, in Dexter, a typical little country town three miles from the Hogan farm. There was much excitement over the charges of a conspiracy to ruin him made by Hogan Sunday. It was evident from the conversation that there are two factions. In several instances threats are said to have been exchanged.

Denies Making Report. Owen Clark, of Ocilla, denied that he reported alleged peonage conditions on the farm to federal officials, but admitted that he had had considerable trouble with Hogan, he stated that the last difficulty was caused by the action of the county farmer in arresting without warrants, two negroes on the Kelly farm, near Ocilla. One of these negroes, he said, was carried to the Hogan plantation and the other was now on the Kelly farm, after being hauled out of jail.

"I knew when I read in The Constitution this morning the statement of Hogan to the effect that a frame-up was the cause of the charges of peonage being made against him, that I was the man 'in another country,' he was referring to, because we had had trouble since 1910, when he refused to pay me some money he owed me," said Clark.

He hasn't reported any peonage conditions on the Hogan farm to the federal agents and don't intend getting mixed up in the affair. Our last trouble was not long ago, when I found out he had arrested without authority two negroes that were here. He got one of the negroes back on his place, but I don't think he will get the other one as quick as he thought he would," he concluded.

Officials Will Not Talk. Reports here indicated that peonage charges had been presented against Hogan before the federal grand jury in Macon. Assistant District Attorney Clem Powers, however, said over long distance telephone he was not at liberty to discuss the case, and refused to either affirm or deny the reports. Judge John S. Adams, prominent Dublin attorney, has been retained by Hogan and he stated tonight he was prepared to defend any charges made against him.

For more than three hours this afternoon, Hogan accompanied the Constitution correspondent on an inspection trip of his farm. There are approximately 2,700 acres of the plantation, all in excellent cultivation. Most of the crops are grain and very little cotton has been planted. Hogan said that seventy-five negroes were residing on the place and that he paid each working negro between fifteen and forty dollars a month in addition to giving them food.

Lizzie Towse, the wife of one of the negro men who left Hogan's farm for the Kelly plantation in Irwin county, declared that her husband owed Hogan money at the time he left, and that she knew of no mistreatment being accorded him nor any other employee on the place.

POISSONS OF FRANCE READY TO ADVANCE INTO RUHR REGION

Germany Has Twelve Days in Which to Say "Yes" Before Suffering Penalties of Her "No."

NAVAL DEMONSTRATION PLANNED FOR BRITAIN

All Allies to Unite in New Occupation of German Territory—France Calls 1919 Class Out.

Washington, May 2.—The German reparations counter proposals are unacceptable as a basis for discussion, Secretary Hughes informed Dr. Simons, the German foreign minister, in a note tonight.

The secretary at the same time urged the German government to make further proposals directing to the allied governments. He also expressed again the earnest desire of the American government for a prompt settlement of "this vital question."

The text of Secretary Hughes' communication, which was dispatched tonight at 11 o'clock to Loring Drexel, American high commissioner in Berlin, follows:

"The government of the United States has received the memorandum left by Dr. Simons with the commissioner of the United States under date of April 24, relating to reparations. In reply this government states that it finds itself unable to reach the conclusion that the proposals afford a basis for discussion acceptable to the allied governments and that these proposals cannot be entertained. This government, therefore, again expressing its earnest desire for a prompt settlement of this vital question, strongly urges the German government to make proposals directly to the allied governments clear, definite and adequate proposals which would in all respects meet its obligations."

The communication was made public by the secretary without comment and officials generally refused to discuss the situation. Officially the opinion was expressed that developments at London where the allied supreme council is in session discussing reparations would soon give the explanation of the American government's action. Whether these would demonstrate that the stand of the United States for payment by Germany to her full ability but to a degree readily and her economic recuperation, had been met was a subject upon which no light was shed tonight.

The American position is understood to have been since Germany forwarded her counter proposals, that a settlement should be achieved if possible by discussion and that even in the face of an allied ultimatum the United States would not cease to work for such a settlement. At the same time it was emphasized that the American government would stand with the allies in demanding proper reparations.

COUNCIL AGREES TO UNIFORMITY TERMS.

agreed today reached a substantial agreement on the terms to be imposed on Germany. In principle, it is agreed that Germany is under obligation to pay to the allies $100,000,000 pounds sterling. She will be required to pay 100,000,000 pounds yearly, plus 25 per cent on her exports.

This obligation on the part of Germany shall be acknowledged by the issue by Germany of bonds bearing 5 per cent interest. Of these certain amount shall be issued immediately, a second lot in November and thereafter as many more as she has ability to pay. How the bonds are to be paid off is still a matter of discussion.

These terms will be incorporated in the ultimatum, which expires May 12 and will be sent to Germany as soon as the details of the terms are definitely decided upon, probably at the meeting of the council tomorrow.

To Pay as Able.

When the German payments amount to more than the sum required to pay the interest on the bonds already issued the reparations commission will be entitled to require the issue of further bonds. The intention of the plan, according to a British official, is to proportion the German obligations, after a certain figure, to her ability to pay.

The drafting committee is still at work on the details of the terms, but hopes to conclude its report in time for tomorrow's meeting, which will be attended by the military and naval experts. The protracted meeting today is understood to have been due to the long discussion over the guarantees to be demanded of Germany for payment of reparations, there being at the start a considerable divergence of opinion. Finally, however, an agreement was reached.

Should Germany fail to accept the terms within the stipulated time, the French plan for occupation of the Ruhr, with a possible naval demonstration on the part of the British will be carried out and the proceeds of German revenue, such as customs, will be appropriated towards payment of the annual obligations.

Array of Experts.

In addition to the chiefs of the delegations, there was an array of financial experts present at today's meeting. Sir Robert Stevenson, the British chancellor of the exchequer, was absent, but M. Briand, Count Sforza and Foreign Minister Jasper were accompanied by their financial ministers: Baron Kato Mori, Japanese minister in London, and Mr. Lloyd George by Winston Spencer Churchill and representatives of the treasury.

M. Briand announced tonight that he must return to Paris Tuesday so that the meeting tomorrow is expected to be final.

The preamble of the agreement will rectify that Germany, having failed to fulfill the treaty of Versailles with respect to reparations, criminals and having violated other articles of the treaty, which will be cited by number, the allied governments have decided to occupy the Ruhr.

To Join Forces.

In this event British and Belgian forces on the Rhine will join with the French in their march into the district. Orders for the mobilization of the 1919 class were dispatched to Paris tonight. Anglo-French naval council has been called to meet in London tomorrow, in which Admiral Beatty, for the British and Admiral Grasse, for the French, will participate. The French admiral was summoned to London tonight.

The reparations commission will notify Germany within four days of the sums payable and the conditions of payment. Germany's reply must be acceptance without reservation or discussion. If such affirmative reply is not received by the evening of May 12, the occupation will begin without further notice.

The results of today's meeting are regarded by the French delegation as satisfactory. They would then inform Germany of the ultimatum, which would be sent to the British public opinion. The British public opinion would not willingly support occupation until Germany had been given another chance. M. Briand yielded the point, to which the French people and parliament attach great importance. But he probably obtained British naval cooperation to the extent of a demonstration before Hamburg, though not an actual blockade.

FRENCH TROOPS BEGIN ADVANCE.

French Military Headquarters, Germany, May 2.—One division of black Moroccan infantry and one division of cavalry, under command of General Simon, left this evening for the Ruhr. They will arrive in Duesseldorf Tuesday morning.

CLASS OF 1919 CALLED TO COLORS.

Paris, May 2.—The ministry of war said tonight, with reference to the ultimatum of the dispatch of infantry and cavalry from Mayence into the Ruhr, that the government had not yet issued any order for such movement into the Ruhr. Mayence, however, was added. It may have deemed it advisable to start the troops.

Minister of War Barthou this evening issued an order calling the class of 1919 to the colors, with the exception of men who have served in the Orient and in Morocco and men belonging to the auxiliary services.

Mobilization will be carried out by means of a letter sent to each man. As soon as detachments have been formed they will be sent to the Rhine in such a manner as to not interfere with regular railway traffic.

SHARP NOTE SENT BY U. S. TO PANAMA

United States, is physically laid down in the manner provided in articles 2 and 7 of the Porras-Anderson treaty.

The note concludes with an expression of regret that the United States "feels itself obliged to communicate to the government of Panama this determination, but states that it has been reached only after the most careful and friendly deliberation."

Re-States Position.

The note, which is in reply to one from Panama dated March 18, and received here April 21, re-states the American position in detail, examining anew the legal aspects of the controversy as though at the same time it says that an extended discussion of the contentions advanced by the government of Panama should be unnecessary.

Referring to the statement of the government of Panama that its people are unanimous in their expressions against recognition of the White award, the note says the American government "has learned of these expressions with deep regret," but expresses confidence that "the people of Panama will recognize the obligation of their government to comply with the terms of the solemn agreements into which it has entered."

The United States, it adds, "cannot consider the suggestions made by the government of Panama that a plebiscite be held in the territory in dispute as a means of reaching a final settlement of the controversy," because of the obligation of Panama under the Porras-Anderson treaty to consider the award as a perfect and complete settlement between the governments of Panama and Costa Rica.

No Foundation for Claim.

The White boundary was not limited by the Louvet award, as the note asserts, and adding that there appears to be no foundation for the claim that Panama "is entitled to retain territory on the Pacific side which confessedly does not belong to Panama because the government of Panama is not satisfied with the award of the chief justice of the United States as to other territory on the Atlantic side."

Chief Justice White did not exceed his powers and jurisdiction in fixing his boundary, the note says, adding that he had decided the precise question which he had been invested with jurisdiction to decide, and "the two parties to the dispute were, by their most solemn engagement, bound to accept his determination accordingly."

GOLDSMITH WILL SUCCEED JOHNSON

Young Business Man Will Head Capital City Club. The Retiring President Thanked.

At the annual meetings of the members of the Capital City Club held last night, J. W. Goldsmith, Jr., was elected president of the organization to succeed Edwin P. Johnson, who refused to stand for re-election. Mr. Goldsmith has been a member of the club since 1910 and since that time he has been active in its affairs, having served on the house committee, the finance committee, the governing board and as vice president, which position he has held during the past year.

Other nominations were Thomas M. Daniels as vice president to succeed Mr. Goldsmith and Evelyn Harris as secretary and treasurer to succeed J. H. Lewis, whose health prevented his further serving in this capacity. There was only one man nominated for each office and the nominations are equivalent to election.

Mr. Goldsmith's name was placed in nomination by J. D. Robinson, Mr. Daniels by Earl Cone and Mr. Harris by Arthur Clarke.

Marion Smith Named.

To fill a vacancy on the governing board, Marion Smith was named by that body to take the place of Harry Hermance, whose business has taken him away from Atlanta. Mr. Smith's selection by the board was approved unanimously by the members present.

Thomas J. Lyon was nominated by John Brice to succeed Mr. S. Adams on the governing board. To succeed themselves on the board W. E. Harrington was nominated by Ulric Atkinson and J. T. Williams, Clarence Knowles.

President Johnson named J. R. Gray, Ernest Otley and Arthur Clarke, as an election committee to count the ballots which will be cast today. Since there was only one man named for each vacancy the election will be perfunctory.

President Johnson Thanked.

At the conclusion of the meeting President Johnson was given a rising vote of thanks for the splendid services he has rendered the club during the past year. In his report he pointed out the fact that the club was in better shape financially than it had been at any time during the past four years. He told of the improvements made at both the city and country clubs during the year.

The entertainments during opera week were the most successful and elaborate the club has ever had. During the week 1,100 people were served at dinner and 1,250 at luncheon. President Johnson thanked the membership and the various committees for their co-operation and paid high tribute to the efficiency of W. P. Timmie, superintendent of the club, and Henry Broada, the steward.

chamber of commerce at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, there will be announced the election of the officers, consisting of president, first vice president, second vice president, third vice president and treasurer. Inaugural speeches will be made by the newly-elected officers and a program of work will be outlined and discussed.

Directors Invited.

Each member of the junior chamber is urged to be present at this meeting on Thursday evening, as it is a very important one and an interesting program is promised. The directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce have been invited to attend in a body.

The junior chamber begins operations with a larger membership than any in the south, the total number of members being 1,200. It is an exceptionally pleased, said Lee Ascher, of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, "with the way in which the organization of the junior chamber has progressed. From large the large number of members they have received in such a short time, it is an undoubted fact that the young men and women are thinking in terms of Atlanta's betterment, and this organization will play a great part in the future building of the community."

PETITION IS FILED FOR MRS. ABBOTT

over phone at his residence. Upon information supplied by Mrs. Abbott, the girl was arrested and held as a material witness in the case after she had admitted that she had called Abbott.

Mrs. Abbott claimed that she shot in defense of her home, that her husband had been untrue to her and that he had failed to support her and her two small boys. A short time after the shooting Mrs. Abbott was found with a pistol in her hand, and a fatal wound in her breast.

Trial Was Sensational.

When the case came up for trial before Judge Humphries, in the criminal division of the superior court, in February of the same year, interest was so great that the courtroom was packed to the rafters. The verdict was voluntary manslaughter, and the penalty was ten years' imprisonment.

Attorneys for Mrs. Abbott immediately carried the case to the civil court, which tribunal granted a new trial. The second trial, on May 27, 1920, ended in a verdict of acquittal. Mrs. Abbott has served nearly a year on the state farm at Milledgeville, and considerable interest was attached to her appeal for clemency and the hearing upon the petition.

POLICE SEARCHING FOR COMPANIONS OF HOLDUP VICTIM

R. W. Shelton, of 216 Courtland street, reported to the police Monday night that he had been held up at the corner of Piedmont avenue and Fourth street and robbed of $30. Shelton was in company with two other men when the robbery was committed.

According to Shelton's story to the police, he lent $10 to these two men earlier in the day, when they requested the loan, stating that with this amount they could buy a concession at Lakewood park. A few hours afterward the men returned, told Shelton they had succeeded in getting the concession, and said that they knew a party at Lakewood park who would buy the concessions from them at a good profit. Shelton was told if he would accompany them to Lakewood park they would refund him the $10. This he agreed to do, and was accompanying them, he says, when a man held the three up at the point of a gun.

Shelton told his story to Captain A. J. Holcombe, and detectives, furnished with an accurate description of the two men, are seeking them, believing they were implicated in the hold-up.

AMERICAN BANKERS' EXECUTIVE BODY HOLDS MEETINGS

Pinehurst, N. C., May 2.—Preliminary committee meetings were held by the executive council of the American Bankers' association at its spring meeting, which opened here today. Adjournment was soon taken to the golf links. The sessions will continue until Friday.

$871,720 FIGURES IN TWO DECISIONS

Settlements Involving $871,720 were made Monday in two suits brought against the Brown-Randolph corporation, owners of the Transportation building at Marietta and Forsyth streets, in Judge H. M. Reid's court. The sum of $435,948 was awarded to E. T. Brown, and $435,772 to A. V. Gude, Jr., sole surviving partner of the A. V. Gude Construction company. The settlements were made by consent.

In the suit brought by Mr. Brown recovery was asked on the grounds that the plaintiff held promissory notes issued by the corporation owning the Transportation building, the money from which was used to pay city tax and insurance premiums. The suit by the Gude Construction company was for payment of accounts for construction and alteration of the building. Changes in the original plans also figured in the suit.

The case was carried to the state supreme court on a demurrer, which was decided in the plaintiff's favor, this action sending the case back to the lower court to be settled on its merits. A mutual agreement was reached, the total amounts passed by Judge Reid in the two cases being $871,720. A lien on the building was allowed.

In the settlement made with Brown, $387,875 represented the principal, $33,292 was for interest, and $50,553 was for attorney's fees. The Gude settlement involved $382,225 as principal, $54,281 as interest, and $20,166 for attorney's fees.

The law firm of Dean & Wright represented E. T. Brown, and the Gude suit was in the hands of Hammond & Smith and Luther Z.

PEONAGE CHARGES PROBED IN BIBB

Macon, Ga., May 2.—(Special.)—Charging the United States grand jury which is probing the alleged peonage conditions on the farm of John S. Williams and his three sons in Jasper county, Judge Beverly Evans today declared that "no community should permit peonage conditions to exist, as peonage is a blot upon the civilization and morality of the people."

Judge Evans explained in detail the law defining peonage, pointing out the distinction between peonage and the voluntary performance of labor, or rendering service in payment of debt.

The grand jury retired a few minutes after 10 o'clock. K. P. Allen was chosen foreman. Assistant United States District Attorney Clem Powers, who is in charge of the jury, said yesterday that he expected the grand jury to return its indictments late Wednesday afternoon.

It is understood that a number of witnesses from Jasper county have been summoned to appear before the grand jury tomorrow, and it is reported that Doyle Campbell, an architect-general of the Ocmulgee circuit, which includes Jasper county, will also appear before the body.

South Georgia Investigation.

It is stated that the grand jury will also investigate alleged peonage conditions on other farms in south Georgia. Agents of the department of justice have investigated during the past few months a number of farms in the southern district of Georgia, and Mr. Powers announced several weeks ago that all peonage conditions in this district would be laid before the grand jury.

If a true bill is returned in the case of the Jasper county farm, it is understood indictments will be laid against John S. Williams and his three sons, Hulan, Marvin and Leroy.

United States District Attorney John W. Bennett and Mr. Powers refused to give out any information today on matters being presented to the jury, other than to say that violations of the Harrison narcotics act, prohibition laws and postal laws, as well as peonage matters, would be brought to the attention of that body.

Assistant District Attorney Powers, who will be in charge of the presentation of evidence before the federal grand jury, declared tonight that he had no official information of alleged peonage in Laurens county. "If there is any peonage case in Laurens county," he said, "the investigators have not presented the information to me."

Mr. Powers denied a rumor that the grand jury is to visit the John S. Williams farm at Monticello, in investigating the Williams case.

Peonage Defined.

In that part of the charge to the grand jury relating to peonage, Judge Evans said:

"There is a clear distinction between peonage and the voluntary performance of labor or rendering service in payment of a debt. In the latter case the debtor, though contracting to pay, his indebtedness by laborer service, and subjection to any other contractor to any action for damages for breach of that contract, can elect at any time to break it."

But where a debtor is prevented by force of fear, exerted by a creditor employer, from acting as a free agent with respect to performing his contract and is coerced into remaining in the service of the creditor-employer, he will be held in the condition of peonage in violation of the statute of the United States."

WAR FINANCE BODY TO AID EXPORTERS

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON,
Constitution Bureau,
Raleigh Hotel.

Washington, May 2.—(By Constitution Leased Wire).—The war finance corporation today, at a formal meeting of its board of directors, agreed to make advances to American exporters and to American exporters such monies to finance the exportation of cotton under definite contract of sale. This is the most advanced step yet taken to finance cotton exports, and is a direct result of the conference in Atlanta Saturday.

On his return from Atlanta today, Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation, made the following statement: "Director McClean and I, representing the war finance corporation, attended the conference of southern bankers and cotton exporters, which was held in Atlanta on Saturday, under the auspices of the Federal International Banking company. The conference was highly satisfactory, and two definite and important results were obtained."

"The first and most important was the formation of a joint committee of bankers and exporters to work out practical methods of dealing with the exportation of cotton, especially to those countries which could use substantially larger quantities if credit were obtainable on a sound basis. The second was a definite request from the exporters, approved by the bankers, that the war finance corporation make advances to American exporters and to American exporters such monies to finance the exportation of cotton under definite contract of sale, but which would not move forward immediately. This request was considered at a meeting of the board today and received its approval."

Rich's Store, in Gay Attire, Celebrates 54th Anniversary By Opening 30-Days Sale

When anything gets to be fifty-four years old, it is supposed to be taking on grey hairs, ear trumpets, false teeth, walking sticks and generally decorating itself in the serene and yellow leaf. At least that was the old fashioned idea of growing old gracefully.

But times and conditions change, as some philosopher remarked, and the granddaddy of today is rushing her toddling lesson as soon as she has had a permanent wave put in her hair, which can be and is any color of the green earth except grey.

And Monday the old, revered, and honored Rich's Store, 52 Whitehall street, dressed its great department store up like a giddy girl and put on an anniversary sale that is to last through the merry month of May just to show to Atlanta that anything can be fifty-four years old and as young and skittish and progressive as that ripe age, as it years meant nothing except a record of proud achievement.

Sales as a Novelty.
A sale lasting an entire month is something of a novelty in itself. A sale lasting an entire month with a different class of goods specializing each day and each day with a sale conducted in the surrounding streets of the city, is a novelty in itself. The store has been at the present location for 54 years and has been a part of the life of the city for that long.

Rich's Store was established in 1867 by Morris Rich, president of the company. Walter H. Rich, vice president of the company, D. H. Rich, secretary, and Lucian York, general manager, the store has been at the present location for 54 years and has been a part of the life of the city for that long.

same story in the silk department and the next day in the underwear department. Understand that while the store is applying to the store, each day this month we will have a special sale in some particular department.

"It took us months and months to prepare for this sale. I spent six months ago a merchant with cash could get anything he wanted in New York and he was willing to pay. New York needed money. That's the reason we have been able to make the prices and these prices give the reason for this storm of people."

Lucian York, general manager of the company, had charge of the details of the sale, and Mr. York put into his arrangements all his genius for the theatrical. The entire first floor of the store was converted into a magnificent replica of the first floor of "The Mikado." Pooh Bahs, Fish Tushes, Nanai Poo, and Kokos walked with state, tread up and down the aisles in gorgeous kimonos. All the sales girls were attired as attractive Yum Yums and Pitti Sings.

A scenic artist had been employed for the mural decorations. Cherry Blossoms and Lilacs everywhere. Huge 50 foot Japanese fans were features of the decoration. The store was decorated with a peculiarly nipponese atmosphere to the entire arrangement.

Rich's Store was established in 1867 by Morris Rich, president of the company. Walter H. Rich, vice president of the company, D. H. Rich, secretary, and Lucian York, general manager, the store has been at the present location for 54 years and has been a part of the life of the city for that long.

Bryan to Seek Florida Solon's Senatorial Toga

Plans to Move Residence From Nebraska—Counts on Women's Vote.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON,
Constitution Bureau,
Raleigh Hotel.

Washington, May 2.—(By Constitution Leased Wire).—Colonel William Jennings Bryan has abandoned all idea of ever becoming a presidential nominee again, has moved his headquarters from Nebraska to Florida, in which latter state he has just registered, and will vote in the future democratic primaries, and is expected to shortly announce his candidacy from that state for the United States senate to succeed Senator Mark Trammell, whose term expires March 4, 1923. These state movements were made in Washington today by a party of democrats from Florida who called upon Representative Frank Clark, of the second Florida district, who is also expected to become a candidate for Senator Trammell's seat.

Colonel Bryan has maintained a winter residence near Miami for a number of years, but has insisted that he kept his legal domicile at Lincoln, Neb., and has never failed to vote there at each election, and to his brother in each state democratic contest, the Bryan faction and the Bryan faction being usually arrayed against each other. At the last national democratic convention, Colonel Bryan was a delegate from Nebraska, his faction representing a minority of the delegates, and in that convention, while given usual Bryan ovation by reason of his long and record of service, it was a matter of record that the former leader whose word was a convention law from 1896 to 1912, not only lost his right to be re-elected, but before the convention as a whole, to such a marked extent that he declared that he would leave San Francisco, that his heart had been buried.

Recent Priest Denied.
During the campaign, when Colonel Bryan refused to take any active part for Governor Cox, the democratic committee, it was rumored that the Nebraska statesman would move his citizenship to Florida, but this was denied. It was recalled that both Colonel W. J. Bryan and his brother attempted, a few weeks ago, to "reorganize" the party machinery, but without success, before the national committee, while from the democratic press of the time, there arose a storm of protests at the suggestion that the Bryan brothers should again become dominating factors in national democratic affairs.

The senatorial fight in Florida next year will be one of the most spectacular ever held even in that state of a Sydney Catts faction that is undoubtedly powerful building. It will, it is said, be lined up behind Colonel Bryan. Senator Trammell is one of the young men of the up-country, but has been attorney general and governor of his state, and is considered an effective campaigner. It is understood he has antagonized many of the interests in Florida, and is seeking protection, but in that is consistent with his party platform, although by reason of the peculiarity of Florida's special and climatic resources no state in the union, as a whole, is clamoring more for the protection of her products, particularly against importations from the countries to the south.

Figures on Women.
If Congressman Frank Clark enters the contest, as now seems probable, he will carry a personal following that is strong and powerful, he having been in congress for eighteen years, where he has become a leader as well as a powerful floor debater. Colonel William Jennings Bryan, it is said, figures strongly on the newly enfranchised women voters supporting him if he decides to enter the race, which is undoubtedly his present intention.

GEORGE SMITH WILL PAY ATLANTA VISIT

James L. Logan, chairman of the board of directors of the Civitan club, has notified Governor Hugh M. Dorsey and Mayor James L. Key, that George C. Smith, of Baltimore, industrial director of the board of trade in that city, will be a guest of the Civitan club on May 23.

He will speak on that day at a reception and banquet to be tendered him by the Civitan club. Ad Men's club and chamber of commerce on the roof of the Ansley hotel on May 23.

Steamship Company Protests Valuation Placed on Property

State Comptroller William A. Wright has received a protest from the Southland Steamship company, a Delaware corporation owning extensive land and property in and adjacent to Savannah, Ga., charging that the physical value of the property has been overestimated. The company refused an original assessment of $150,000, this figure being raised by comptroller to $220,000. The property is located on Osa-haw island, and the company has been maintaining the same for their figure of $150,000 is just. John T. Boileau, of the railroad commission, will act for the state, while Robert C. Alston, Atlanta attorney, will represent the Southland Steamship company on the arbitration board.

General Wright stated that the company owned 25,000 acres of land, which he appraised at $10 an acre, calling attention to the fact that this was a conservative figure as compared with the average assessment on Chatham county land in 1920, which was $40 an acre.

CONFERENCE CALLED ON PINK BOLL WORM

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—(By Constitution Leased Wire).—A conference of persons and interests related to the cotton industry has been called for May 16 in Washington by the department of agriculture to consider how best to protect the cotton industry against the pink bollworm, the most dangerous of cotton pests.

Senator Harris, of Georgia, today accepted the invitation of Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace to attend the conference. The department believes that there is a fair chance of eradicating the pest, with complete co-operation of the states. The pink bollworm entered the United States from Mexico in 1917, appearing first in Texas. Secretary Wallace informed Senator Harris that there would be a good representation from all the states interested in cotton, and invitations are being sent to the commissioners of agriculture and quarantine officials of these states, and others known to be especially interested in the subject, and also to the farm and cotton organizations.

Americus Library May Close.
Americus, Ga., May 2.—(Special.) The Sumner county board of commissioners today failed to take any action on the petition of the Americus Carnegie library association for additional funds for the support of that institution. Because of the curtailment of the city appropriation, the library here is in embarrassing financial straits, and may be forced to close unless help is given.

Frank Harold, Thomas Harold, and others, who are interested in the library, are endeavoring to raise the necessary funds to keep it open.

Frank Sheffield, John Sheffield, R. J. Perry, Charles L. Ansley and John A. Cobb, constituting a committee was laid upon the table without representing the library association, it is.

Girls' High Commencement Season Will Be Interesting Event

The commencement season of the Girls' High school will be particularly interesting this year because it will be preceded by the Golden Jubilee planned by the Alumnae association to celebrate the fiftyth anniversary of the founding of the school. In this connection it may be of interest to give something of the work accomplished by both the Girls' High school and the Alumnae Association.

The Girls' High school has given to Atlanta a very large majority of the youth of the city. It has given to business and the professions scores of capable men who have made a success of their work in the home life of the city, hundreds of betterment, and has made and sustained a name for thoroughness and efficiency. In short, it has been a constructive and beneficial element in the civil life of the community.

Gift Scholarships.
In 1922, the alumnae established the custom of awarding gift scholarships to the members of the graduating classes of the school. At a subsequent date, they established fellowships for teachers in the public schools, who were members of the alumnae and who wished to take advanced work during the summer. These gifts have now reached in money value the sum of $750. In addition to these gifts, the alumnae has given aid to students in the Girls' High school in need of books and clothing, making it possible for many girls to continue their education who could have not done so otherwise.

Noted Lecturers.
Many noted lecturers have been brought to Atlanta by the Alumnae association, among the most interesting of whom may be mentioned Miss Susan B. Anthony, Frederick Ward, F. Hopkinson Smith, John Fox, Jr., Ernest Thompson Eaton and many distinguished educators. The alumnae may be said to have been a pioneer in bringing to the city men and women prominent as lecturers in art, literature, drama, sociology and kindred subjects. The annual spring reunions have added a social feature to the alumnae's work which has proved valuable in keeping the graduates of the school in touch with each other and with the work of the association.

The spring entertainment this year will be held in Browning hall, Thursday, May 2, at 8 o'clock. "Stunts" by members of the association will be a feature. All graduates of the school, whether or not members of the association or not, are cordially invited to be present.

TECH HIGH SCHOOL PARENT-TEACHERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Important problems affecting Tech High school will be brought up for discussion at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of this institution in the high school auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

Fathers and mothers of all children attending the school are urged to come to the meeting, having any remarks or suggestions to offer will be given the opportunity of presenting them. Several boys, picked from various grades, will deliver short talks.

Negro Woman Awarded Property by Court Valued at $20,000,000

New Orleans, May 2.—Lillie Taylor, a negro woman, was awarded oil and mineral rights in property in Claiborne parish said to amount to $20,000,000 in a decision rendered late today by the state supreme court.

This decision was rendered in a suit brought by the Taylor woman against Angeline Allen and George West, claimants to the property. According to the evidence offered in the case, the Taylor woman's father, an illegitimate child, sold the property to Angeline Allen and George West, but did not give them a quit-claim deed.

The parentage of the Taylor woman was said to have been the chief issue in the trial of the case. The court decision today confirms the claim of the Taylor woman that she is the child of the original owner of the property in question.

OLD AT 40? IRON STARVATION

Of the blood perhaps and your worn out, exhausted nerves need to be revitalized. For this purpose there is nothing better than Organic Iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure Organic Iron.

One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent to the organic iron content of one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Over four million people annually are going Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results. All all druggists.

Toe Nail Turns Out Itself if You Toughen Skin

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgrows" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgrows" is a harmless, antiseptic, manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions. (adv.)

Express company in intrastate shipments, and making it compulsory upon the two concerns to work in harmony for "the best interests of the shipping public."

The plan of the American company developed after the commission had on April 13, 1921, placed its approval upon the rates of that company for the Southeastern, which, in substance, meant that authority was granted the Southeastern to concur in rates with the American, effective May 1.

On April 20 the American company issued a special supplement to all its traffic showing the Southeastern as a party to its traffic, but making provision, it is alleged, as to routing that prevented the Southeastern from handling business from any point at which both concerns had agencies to a point served exclusively by the American and vice versa.

Examples Given.
To give an example thus meant that the Southeastern could not accept business in Macon, where both carriers have agencies, to be delivered at Fitzgerald, where only the American company has an agency.

Another case affects the fish-shipping industry from Savannah to local points on the Southern road between Atlanta and Brunswick. The American company, under this plan, would agree to haul the shipments of fish over the Coast Line to Jessup and turn them over to the Southeastern to be delivered to points north of Jessup on the Southern road between Jessup and Atlanta.

Under the ruling, it would have carried the shipments on its own lines north to Columbia, would then turn them over to the Southeastern and then route them back southward through Atlanta to the consignees, thus necessitating a much longer haul and a considerable loss of time.

There are hundreds of Georgia towns and commodities which would be similarly affected, according to the commission.

Appeal Denied.
The Southeastern company appealed to the interstate commerce commission to remove the application of this routing rule, the American and the interstate commission denied the plea in so far as interstate traffic was concerned.

The interstate commission, however, declined to rule upon intrastate traffic, and the Georgia commission cleared up the situation Monday by issuing instructions to both companies to continue handling traffic under the same rates and routes as heretofore in so far as intrastate traffic is affected.

Appeal from the decision of the commission was made by the American, but it will take 60 to 90 days time to get a hearing and an order through the commission and the company must show the justness of its position both to itself and the shipping public.

Victory Is Easy For Lowly Hog In Council Fight

Ordinance Barring Him From Town Meets Overwhelming Defeat.

So many councilmen jumped up and seconded the motion to kill the ordinance to banish Atlanta's hogs, when it was called up for passage in council Monday afternoon that the few present presenters against the hog until the measure reached the floor, sat outside the railing in enclosure and gasped. They had been promised support and they could scarcely believe what was taking place.

Alderman C. R. Garner, of the fifth ward, started the onslaught. He moved to table the ordinance. His motion was followed with a salvo of seconds, particularly audible and distinct being those of Councilman Ashley and Councilman Couch, champions of the hog heretofore when similar attempts were made to drive him out.

Councilman Richards had sought to placate the hog's defenders by introducing an amendment making it January 1, 1922, before banishment edict would become effective. There was a motion to table, it too, and both the ordinance and the amendment met the same fate.

PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR RAISING FUND TO SAVE CHINESE

Methods of raising the $40,000 allotted Atlanta for its share in the contribution to the Chinese relief fund were discussed by the Atlanta Evangelical Ministers' association at its regular monthly meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

On motion of Dr. W. L. DeBardleben, pastor of Payne Memorial church, it was decided to apportion the quota among the different denominations of the city, and each church will be given credit for their subscriptions with the denominational mission board.

Rev. Ashby Jones and John J. Egan depicted the appalling conditions existing in China's famine district and urged closer co-operation in quickly raising this sum, pointing out that it meant the saving of 6,000,000 people who are starving for lack of the necessities of life.

VETERINARIANS PLAN WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

A conference having for its purpose a revival of interest in the cooperative tuberculosis eradication campaign among the animals of Georgia, was held Monday in the Piedmont hotel, this being the first of a three-day session. More than 100 experts and state and county officials engaged in various phases of this work were in attendance.

Dr. J. R. Mohler, of Washington, D. C., chief of the federal bureau of animal industry, explained the necessity for renewed activities in combating this disease, and spoke on the work inaugurated a few years ago by the government to check the ravages of tuberculosis among cattle, swine and horses of the country. The United States government, Dr. Mohler stated, is now engaged in launching a series of campaigns against this malady, and is receiving the hearty co-operation of state, city and county officials.

The convention will hold sessions in the Piedmont hotel at 10 o'clock Tuesday and Wednesday at the same hour, and interesting programs have been arranged.

The feature of the meeting Monday morning was an address by Dr. Peter F. Bahnsen, of Atlanta, state veterinarian of Georgia. "The Tuberculosis Fight in Virginia" was the subject of the address given by Dr. J. G. Ferneyhough, of Richmond, Va., at the afternoon session Monday, and Dr. E. Pegram Flower, of New Orleans, spoke of the fight against the disease in Louisiana.

ATLANTAN CLEARED IN TRIAL, AFTER FIGHT OVER BABY

Athens, Ga., May 2.—(Special.)—Charges of disorderly conduct and assault and battery against G. P. Harrison, service manager of the Newkirk-George Motor company, in Atlanta, and the charge of disorderly conduct against J. B. O'Kelley, brother-in-law of Harrison, were dismissed in the justice court. The charges grew out of a fight between the two men as the result of Harrison's being refused permission to see his 3-year-old baby girl, Glenette. He is separated from his wife, pending divorce proceedings and had been granted the right of seeing his daughter each week.

Not being permitted to see the little girl on the last visit to this city, Harrison stepped in an automobile in which his wife with the baby, and her brother were riding, and took the infant from its mother. After following Harrison in the automobile for a short distance, O'Kelley alighted and attempted to take back the child. A fist fight resulted.

Following the arrest of the men on charges of disorderly conduct, a warrant charging assault and battery was sworn out against Harrison by J. W. O'Kelley, Harrison's father-in-law. After hearing the testimony of witnesses, followed by arguments of the lawyers, who made talks marked by pathos and satire, Judge Thornton dismissed the charges against both defendants.

Straightforward statements were made from the stand during the trial by both Harrison and O'Kelley. Harrison spoke with great emotion, and at times his voice broke. O'Kelley, who is a tall, slender young man, spoke quietly, and in a low tone.

Harrison Gives Viewpoint.

Harrison, who is well-known in Atlanta, in commenting upon the case yesterday, expressed regret that the common law of Georgia did not allow it to cross over his failure to see his baby, for which he had in the past made several trips to Athens, in accordance with an understanding reached through his own and his wife's lawyers. He said that his devotion to his child was such that he felt that his actions in the matter had been excusable, and that the judge evidently had taken this viewpoint in dismissing the charges.

Election Is Held.
Council elected Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin and Eugene Oberdorfer, Sr., as members of the board of public welfare to succeed themselves. W. C. Carraway was re-elected a member of the board of trustees of Carnegie library from the first ward and his election was then declared out of order by the mayor, who was presiding, when the point was raised that Mr. Carraway is already a member of the bond commission and cannot hold dual office. The mayor declared the election out of order after the point was sustained by the city attorney, J. W. Peters, of the tenth ward. A proposed ordinance by Councilman Robert Jones to permit vehicles to park head-on to the curb on Marietta street, instead of parallel, was referred to the ordinance committee.

CONVICTION UPSET IN NEWBERRY CASE

Washington, May 2.—Conviction of United States Senator Truman

McNewberry in federal courts in Michigan for conspiracy to violate the federal corrupt practices act, was set aside today by the supreme court.

The conviction of sixteen other defendants also was set aside. The court held that congress was without power to regulate primaries.

Justice McReynolds read the opinion to which Justice McKenna dissented as to the power of congress, but agreed as to the decision. Chief Justice White also dissented from the decision that congress did not have power to control all elections, but agreed that the statute had been "grossly misconstrued."

Says Court Erred.

Justice McReynolds said that the lower court erred in dismissing the demurrer of the defendants. "Obviously the corrupt practices act covers also the primaries and other preliminary acts preceding an election," the court said. "The one question here is whether congress may limit expenditure of a candidate. The source of such power is in section 4, article 1, of the constitution. This gives congress the power of regulating the manner of holding elections and not of elections," the court held.

Predicts New Laws.

Chief Justice White, in his dissenting opinion, traced in detail the growth of the election system to show that congress was given the power under the constitution to regulate senatorial elections. "It is essentially a federal matter, not existing before the constitution," he said.

Wants New Trial.

Chief Justice White said he concurred in the reversal of the conviction, but thought that a new trial should be held. Associate Justice Pitney also read an opinion dissenting in part from the majority decision, and announced that Associate Justices Brandeis and Clarke had concurred in the opinion he filed.

Upon learning of the court's decision, Chairman Dillingham, of the senate elections committee, which has charge of the Ford-Newberry contest, said the committee would meet in a few days to consider the future senate action. Senator Dillingham said it appeared that with the corrupt practice law void the committee would be without further jurisdiction.

Senator Dillingham said the majority and minority opinions would be read at a meeting of the committee on April 25.

Mr. Elmore will reach Atlanta the latter part of the week, and immediately upon arrival will begin the strenuous task of signing up the producers of more than 200,000 bales of cotton to the association.

Mr. Elmore is well qualified for the work, and is thoroughly conversant with the cotton situation, having lived here several years ago. First of his works will be the final steps in the organization of the Georgia Cotton Growers' association, after which he will plan to have the present deplorable cotton situation prevailing throughout the state.

Chairman C. S. Barrett, of the organization committee, of the cotton growers' association, first suggested the idea of securing the services of Mr. Elmore and tentative appointment of this expert was agreed upon pending Mr. Elmore's agreement to the terms and conditions set forth at the meeting of the committee on April 25.

In the event that 200,000 bales of cotton have been signed up for by July 15, the association plans to handle the work of the state, but should the minimum number of bales not be signed up for by this date, the work of the organization will be continued until January, 1922, and the association will begin its initial work in handling the 1922 crop.

Hearing on the validation of $8,500,000 municipal bonds recently voted at a special election March 8, will come up Tuesday morning in the superior court before Judge George L. Bell.

The city of Atlanta Monday filed a bill of exceptions to the recent ruling by Judge Bell permitting Attorney R. Brown to intervene in the matter.

Mr. Brown, as a taxpayer, protested against the validation of the bonds, and a few days after Judge Bell allowed the validation. The court upon petition of Mr. Brown reopened the matter and allowed Mr. Brown to intervene on the grounds that sufficient notice had not been given the taxpayer to fight the validation. The exceptions to Judge Bell's ruling will have no effect on the main hearing Tuesday, but will be used to carry the case to the supreme court.

SIX-REEL PICTURE, SHOWING VIRGINIA SCENES, PRESENTED

Members of the state highway department and the officers and directors of the Georgia State Automobile Owners' association attended a private showing yesterday of "Virginia's New Horizon," a six-reel picture of Virginia scenes, industry and roads.

The film was declared one of the best arguments for adequate highway transportation ever shown on the screen. It showed the best and the worst of Virginia's roads, and it very clearly showed how Virginia's agricultural and industrial growth is being retarded for the lack of better roads.

It is understood that some action will probably be taken soon leading up to producing such a film of Georgia. The Georgia film which is being planned will show the industrial, agricultural and mining wealth of the state, as well as our ports and other natural advantages. The Virginia film will be shown at the meeting of county commissioners at Dublin this week.

ACID THROWER WINS $5,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

The court of appeals Monday affirmed a verdict rendered in the city court of Atlanta for $5,000 damages in favor of Mrs. Nell Goodman Rolander and of $1,000 for her husband, J. M. Rolander, as the result of an elevator accident in the old Wilson hotel, in which Mrs. Rolander sustained injuries about a year ago.

Mrs. Rolander recently was convicted and sentenced to serve one year on the state prison farm for throwing acid in the face of Mrs. Gladys Pressnell. The latter has entered garnishment proceedings against the $5,000 recovered by Mrs. Rolander in the litigation with the lessees of the Wilson hotel, E. Bullard and J. R. Bennett were the lessees.

BOYKIN SHOWS INCOME AND EXPENSES IN 1920

Solicitor-General John A. Boykin's report for the last six months of 1920 made to Comptroller General William A. Wright Monday showed income $12,775.57; expenses $2,516.97. The report of income and expenses for the first quarter of 1921 which appeared exclusively in The Constitution last Sunday, shows a deficit of $2,169.32.

Princely "Jobs" Are Dispensed For Sum of $5.90

Atlanta Man Out-Wallingsfords Wallingford in Novel Scheme of Finance.

Stories of a mammoth mine of a $200,000 bank account, of trucks purchased by the railroad, of salaries that would make princely stipends blush for their paucity, of groggeries bought with a hand so lavish that Herbert Hoover became a niggard, all these narrations permitted S. M. Patterson, of 28 Houston street, to get $5.90 from various Atlantans, obtain his room rent free of charge and use an automobile about as he listed, according to testimony given before Judge Hathcock in municipal court yesterday.

According to witnesses, all of whom said they were more or less victims of Patterson's plausibility, he appeared in Atlanta about four months ago with a lot of stationery of the Union Mining Corporation of New York city and a story that he was going to develop extensive mining properties at Villa Rica, Cartersville and Conyers. Among the first persons accosted was Ben Hutchinson, who said that Patterson retained his services as general manager or something at a salary just a bit less than the secretary of state receives. The only trouble was that he would have to wire the appointment to New York, which would cost $5.90. Hutchinson produced the $5.90 and Patterson produced the job, but there was never any money attached to it.

Then, according to W. H. Kendrick, of 13 Fairlie street, Patterson gave him an order for about $6,000 worth of groceries for his mine commissary, but that order had to be wired to New York at a cost of $5.90. The same system was worked on an order of seven trucks.

J. M. Farmer said that Patterson was going to purchase his house and that while he was awaiting final closing of the deal, Patterson consented to live with him and have him provide three squares a day for several months. He said that Patterson frequently paid accounts by getting samples of stuff that he was going to stock his commissary with and turning them over to creditors. He also asserted that Patterson was prolific in giving jobs, but each job had the $5.90 attachment on it. The victims believe that they are only a few of those who Patterson played upon.

TWO TO FACE TRIAL IN DRUG THEFT CASE

Augusta, Ga., May 2.—(Special.)—Following the recent closing of the drug clinics here, with the shutting off of the supply of narcotics for addicts, one of whom committed suicide a few days ago, the theft of a case of narcotics from the University hospital has been discovered.

Willie Ross, colored, was today held in $1,000 bond by the United States commissioner in connection with the theft. Claude Padgett, charged with having received the case of drugs from the negro, was held under bond of $500. The authorities here are endeavoring to arrange some means by which drugs may be supplied to about fifty addicts.

LAST BATTLE WITH 'NOOGA'
RAINED OUT

Chattanooga, May 2.—(Special.)—The Atlanta Crackers left for Atlanta today shortly after it became evident that due to rain their second game here with the Chattanooga Lookouts will have to be played at a date as yet unannounced. The weather gives the Crackers the decision over the Lookouts in the series as the Franks were one game ahead of the locals in Atlanta and took the one yesterday in an extra inning battle.

Probably the unhappiest man in the shadow of Lookout Mountain tonight is Dan Boone, who hoped to rouse his former teammates. He tried it at Atlanta and after he had been beat for eight innings, lost in the ninth. The Crackers also kicked him yesterday.

"Red" Wingo of the New York Yankees, joined his old team here yesterday and took part in the game of one hit out of five trials. It is thought that Suggs who was slated for duty today will be used against the Birmingham Barons in Atlanta Tuesday.

Season Will Start on May 9

By JIMMY BURNS.
The players who are to be on the pay rolls of the clubs in the Georgia State League have reported and under the directions of their managers are now busily engaged in working out in preparation for the games which will mark the opening of the 1921 season of the circuit, May 9. All of the clubs possess some first-class players and with the chance of getting more when the colleges turn their athletes out there are fine prospects of this being by far the best season of the Georgia league.

Complete service in covering the games in the Georgia State League is assured the readers of The Constitution. Box scores will be run of every game in addition to the standing of the clubs. Other features will include weekly reviews of the clubs, batting averages of the players and the averages of the pitchers. Fans interested in this league should keep in touch with their activities through the sporting pages of The Constitution.

Post-Season Series.

A plan by which the champion of the league will be declared has been worked out by the officials who are to have their headquarters here in Atlanta. Captain Melcher, of Lindale, is president and

Fresh from Chattanooga where they won the lone game played by the Lookouts and with the old favorite, "Red" Wingo, in left field, the Crackers open their first series of the season with the Birmingham Barons at Poncey park this afternoon.

Johnny Suggs, one of the two reliable of the local twirling staff, will not doubt be called on to rally the Barons in the opening game. He was slated for duty against the Lookouts yesterday, but rain gave him an afternoon off. If Suggs does not get the assignment it may fall on the Pleasanton staff, who has done good work for the Franks on one or two occasions.

With holding out by Daus, the lost the Crackers are now marking time in sixth place. Not a very suitable location for a club with permanent winning aspirations, but then there is plenty of time to pull out of the second inning.

Play Improving.

Even the most pessimistic of fans will admit that the work of the Crackers the last week has been far superior to the playing they did in the early stages of the season. The Franks played six games here last week winning three of them.

Their opponents during the first part of the week were the New Orleans Pelicans, with whom the locals split even in a four game series. Then Dan Boone and his supporters came for a club with the Crackers dusted off Boone's ambition of defeating them in a ninth inning rally that netted them a victory.

Chattanooga took the second game but the Crackers again downed friend Dan in Sunday's contest staged in the shadows of Lookout mountain.

What the local needs now is better pitching. Markle and Suggs are the two lone twirlers that seem

PETRELS GET
SECOND TRIP

With their return from the week's tour of Virginia and South Carolina, but two days old, the Oglethorpe Petrels hit the road again today, their first destination, Birmingham, where Wednesday and Thursday they meet the Birmingham Southern nine. This road trip is the last long one of the season for the Oglethorpe boys, and on it they play five games, Friday and Saturday they meet the University of Alabama at Tusculoo, and Monday and Tuesday take on the Mississippi Aggies at Starkville, Miss.

Fifteen players, Coach Frank Anderson and Manager "Daddy" Erickson compose the Petrel party making the trip. "Terrible" Turk, the pitching ace of the squad, will join the team in Tusculoo and will twirl one of the games against Alabama and the next week will oppose the Aggies.

Players on Trip.
The players making the trip are: Simpson, catcher; Little and Moety, pitchers; David, Halper, Hope, Vinton and Ferguson, infielders; Canale, Thaxton, Jones, Selmon and Morris, outfielders; Selmon or Jones will be sent back to Oglethorpe after the games with Birmingham Southern. Morris will not be used for a turn on the mound.

While a few of the Oglethorpe players are optimistic as to the chances of their team making a sweep of the series on the road most feel that it will be the best week in the history of an Oglethorpe baseball team. Since Anderson made the shift to the Petrels, sending Hope to short, where most of the trouble in fielding has been found, there has been a noticeable improvement in the fielding of the team.

All through the year the Petrels have been a powerful hitting team, and all of their hitting in the past has been at the expense of some of the best twirlers in the league. In this trip about the best moundsmen they will face is Hinton, a rangy left-hander of the Alabama Southern who will furnish the locals much competition in the two games. If they have a good team they have certainly been successful in keeping that fact out of the papers. Alabama has a better nine than Oglethorpe, and besides, they have lost their shortstop, Pratt, to the Chicago Cubs. Mississippi & M. is the dark horse for the week.

It is not likely that Birmingham Southern will furnish the locals much competition in the two games. CADETS AND SMITHIES IN GAME TODAY

Atlanta Gunner Leading Chase For State Trap Championship; Many Prominent Shooters Heer

Tech High and G. M. A. will meet in the feature game of the Tuesday round of the Atlanta Prep league season. Close behind this game in attractiveness is the Boys' High, University high game. Both will be played at Piedmont park, which will enable the fans to see both at once. Marietta and Fulton High will meet in the other game of the afternoon.

Tech High and G. M. A. are tied for the second place in the league standings and are staging a great battle for the runner-up to Boys' High. G. M. A. won the first game between the two, but the boys are about even in the second. Either team has a good chance to win the contest. Sale and Carter will be the battery for the Cadets, while the Tech High hard workers are not known.

Duby White is Coach David's probable selection for mound duty for Boys' High, with Robertson as his catcher.

Hoswell and Minnith are likely point men for the Bluebirds. Boys' High is hoped to win this game, and only an upset can deprive them of victory, however, that is quite possible, and probable.

Marietta and Fulton High are two of the best second division clubs, and their battle should be well worth seeing. This game will be played at Brisbane park. All three will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Just From Georgia

By FRANK L. SEATON.

A Maytime Chorus.

Weather Man, he do his best.

De people ter be pleasin'.

Ef sho' mus be freazin'.

De dilly let de dress parade.

De v'let feelin' blue.

Es a man without a dollar.

An' de sheriff comin', too!

But de Lord made de world.

An' he runnin' de weather.

The Call of the Creek Bank.

Every expert fisherman find time to drop a line of verse.

John is one, and here's his latest.

In the Excelsior Springs Standard.

"Some prefer the catfish, some admire the perch; some would fish for anything, afore they'd go to church."

Funny how the creek bank fling a magic spell clear around a feller's heart and keeps him feelin' well.

Willers near the mill-dam, or jes' below the drift, gives a hint of channel cat, waitin' for a lift.

Medder lark an' rain-crow constitutes the choir—Bob White furdur down, settin' on a branch.

To restore a feller's soul—Help me find a bait can. Where's my fishin' pole?

"Somethin' on the creek bank, penetrates me deep . . . Ripples at the mill ford sings a man to sleep . . . Sermons in the hush-midnight, or on the clove of the day."

Lordy, let me worship there, where there's lots of room . . . Somethin' in a fishhook that sharpens up my wits . . . Perch a-bittin' savage fairly throws me into fits."

Everything in fishin' that a hungry soul desires . . . Pity that it turns out a crop of fancy liars!"

Out o' Po' Man's Lan'.

De hoe or de hammer.

In de willin' han'.

Gits you out o' Po' Man's Lan'.

Short time ter lissen.

Ter de playin' o' de ban'.

When you gittin' out o' Po' Man's Lan'.

Rise fer de runnin'.

Take de ready-stan'.

Ef you gittin' out o' Po' Man's Lan'.

De gold's ter de diggin'.

Ef you gittin' in de man'.

Gittin' out o' Po' Man's Lan'.

HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

PRIVATION IN PLENTY.

In fact, children and adults frequently suffer from privation in the midst of plenty. The diet may be ample in ordinary respects, but the value for the nutrition of the individual according to the best available method of estimating nutritive values is far from adequate.

An adequate something which is indispensable for perfect nutrition, which is the something that has been tentatively termed vitamin.

Physiologists have arrived at a conclusion, that there are at least three groups of vitamins: (1) Fat-soluble (vitamin A, D, E, K); (2) water-soluble (vitamin B, C); (3) water-soluble (vitamin B, C).

In some parts of the United States cattle cannot be kept in good, healthy condition unless the forage is improved by fertilization of the soil. In Victoria, Australia, on certain pasture land develop paralysis and other infirmities which are prevented or cured by proper soil fertilization. Which reminds us that the problem of human nutrition goes back to the chemistry of the soil from which our food is derived. Even such a food as cow's milk is probably varied within wide margins in vitamin content with varying kinds of feed. Fresh raw milk is generally recognized as the most nutritious food (prevents scurvy). But it is not a complete food. It lacks certain vitamins. For instance, it lacks vitamin A, which is necessary for the growth of the body. It also lacks vitamin B, which is necessary for the metabolism of the body. It lacks vitamin C, which is necessary for the prevention of scurvy. It lacks vitamin D, which is necessary for the growth of the bones. It lacks vitamin E, which is necessary for the health of the skin. It lacks vitamin K, which is necessary for the blood.

The Washington Herald, in commenting editorially upon the merits of the new New York law, says—

"Rental agents have found that children are often allowed a license which allows largely to deterioration and so to repair bills. Beyond this, children without the out-of-doors in which to get rid of their surplus of vocal and physical activity are as bad as—though they could not be worse than—a strident phonograph playing jazz as a neighbor."

Of course, the law should afford the landlord full protection against damage done by any tenant. It does that now, in fact, so that if rented property is injured, or its rental value impaired, by acts of depredation committed by occupants, adults or children, the owner has his remedy at law.

But the spirit and purpose of this New York statute is to remove the barrier against children by making it illegal for any owner of rental property to post a "Verboten" sign against children simply because they are children.

If the policy of excluding children were generally adopted the result would be an all-embracing ban against parentage and childhood among the non-home-owning classes. This would eventuate in a species of race suicide.

Mount Wilson reports the invention of a solar cook stove, but, of course, it comes too high for us.

If there are "twelve men who understand the Einstein theory," they can make a comfortable living explaining Dr. Einstein's explanation.

An intelligent comet might be in better business than that of looking up this little old earth and making a beeline for us.

If there's a Maypole anywhere in this vicinity, now is the time for the flowers to freeze to it.

Seen and Heard in Washington

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON

Washington, May 2.—(Special.)—There has been introduced in congress a bill to segregate the races on the street cars in Washington.

And another bill to abolish the "Jim Crow" cars in the south.

And neither bill has any more chance of enactment than William Jennings Bryan has of becoming president.

Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, has introduced a bill authorizing railroads to issue mileage books.

denominations of 5,000 miles and over, for interstate travel, at the rate of 2-1/2 cents a mile. This bill would pass and very probably will, if there is no further and more definite action taken toward reorganizing the American railroads.

And even so, the book arrangement at a rate uniformly reduced from the general rate eventually fixed will very probably be enacted anyway.

The following "same old story" under a new date line, has just been given out at the white house:

Sale of Silks

WE HAVE heard it whispered that this is to be a Silk Season. Strange and silly talk. The memory of woman runneth not to the time when there was no Silk Season. Every season is a Silk Season because never lived there a woman with soul so dead that she did not quicken at the prospect of a new and charming frock of silk. It is an elemental desire, deep rooted in the heart of womankind.

—That is one of the reasons why we have gathered this mass of shimmering stuffs. From worms that feed on the mulberry leaves of China to this amazing display of shining, gorgeous fabrics is one of the miracles of modern times.

—From gossamer webs to pull through the proverbial ring on through to steady, sturdy, staple silks, the hardy tribe of taffetas and the like, this Silk Sale is full orb'd and complete. It lacks nothing and leaves nothing to be desired.

—Of the prices—what shall we say—the stark economies, the gaping savings—sheer madness, you'll think to sell such silks at such prices. Yes, madness—with method in it. There are records to beat, helpfulness to extend to you, a fine tradition of surpassing Silk Sales in the past to sustain.

—The Dollar Silks, for example. The values here stand out like a pike staff. The black silks, and the group of white silks—brilliant achievements in underselling—unbeatable money's worth.

—In other words, and to take this Silk Sale at a gulp—$225,000 worth for $125,000.

—It is our biggest Silk Sale! It is all things to all women who want silks. And every yard is as fresh as daisies in the morning.

Y. W. Will Give Ideal May Fete.

The Young Women's Christian association will give a May fete on the lawn of the E. R. DuBose residence, 1695 Peachtree road, Saturday, May 14, at 3 p. m. The fete will include hundreds of "Y" girls, under their leaders, are uniting their efforts to raise a fund for sending delegates from Y. W. C. A. girls' work and industrial departments to the Y. W. C. A. field conferences for these two departments, to be held for associations in the South Atlantic states early this season. Admission to the May fete will be 35 cents.

Beautiful Fete.

The leading number of the festival program will be a pageant, "Keeping America Great," written by Miss Helen Fay, of Marietta, Ga., a student at Agnes Scott college. Presiding the pageant to be produced by the Y. W. C. A. Girl Reserves will be a procession which will include the pageant cast, girls in costume from seven clubs of the Y. W. C. A. industrial department, also young women from "Y" business clubs. Twenty girls will represent the different stages of progress of women in industry. The pageant, "Keeping America Great," is symbolic of "Mother Earth" and "America," that her children, who are portrayed by characters representing the different nations of the earth, have failed in accepting the vision of "Mother Earth's" promise to her youngest son, "America," she laments as having been the defender of democracy in the world's wars, after his return home from Europe's war-torn land, has abandoned the struggle for world peace and selfishness enshrouds his soul.

"Experience" reawakens "America" to unite his stages of progress of humanity and work for righteous purposes. "Mother Earth" and "America" are portrayed by characters that they together may heed their country's call to duty and, with all humanity, work for universal peace.

The pageant includes hundreds of Girl Reserves from the Atlanta high schools, Fulton High and the grade schools, who will appear in the cast as pages, attendants, dancing girls, flower girls and children of the nations.

The leading pageant characters, who are Y. W. C. A. Girl Reserves, will be as follows: "Mother Earth," Ruth Palmer; Spirit of Spring, Theodosia Anderson; Experience, Claude Henderson; Babyhood, Frances McKoy; Poland, Mildred Cotter; Macedonia, Louise Hood; Greece, Elizabeth Volberg; Rome, May Belle Bessie England; Lottie Petterson; France, Elizabeth Volberg; Germany, Catherine O'Donnell; Italy, Frances McKoy; Columbia will be the character to be portrayed by Lily Grobel, of Commercial college.

Interesting Personnel. The following personnel is included in the pageant production: Miss Ruth Palmer, pianist; Miss Robert Phillips, costumes for the Junior league, sale of tickets; Mrs. Leslie Carney, patroness.

Miss Nell Barmore and Miss Lucy Adams are directing the pageant dancers, and Mrs. Ann Kimball is business manager and director of rehearsals. Representing the Y. W. C. A. as festival directors are Miss Marya Bracco, secretary, industrial secretary; Miss Elizabeth Greig, chairwoman of the girls' work department; and Miss Marya Bracco, who are lending their efforts toward the success of the fete.

Miss Lucy Marvin Adams, Y. W. C. A. health director, will have Sam Clark and Ann Faulkner appear in a hawker dance; also her first year aesthetic dancing class will take part.

As a side feature of the May fete, there will be booths, where girls in costume will offer for sale novelty hats, popcorn, ice cream, peanuts, cold drinks, candy and flowers. There will be a fish pond, fortune-tellers, grab bags and a hurdy-hurdy.

Tickets for the fete are on sale at the Y. W. C. A. four floor, Peachtree Arcade. The Junior league, as their contribution towards the success of raising a carnival fund, will be responsible for the sale of 100 tickets, and the Rotarians for 200 tickets.

The Young Women's Christian association invited a large attendance to their Maytime festivities. The Y. W. C. Pen Terms Urged For "Joy Riding" In City Machines

Penitentiary terms were declared the proper penalty for "joy-riding" in city-owned cars, Monday afternoon in city council, by Councilman J. K. Nutting. Employees, who use the city's cars without the proper authority are as guilty of a crime as if they stole money out of the treasury and ought to be sent to the penitentiary, he asserted.

The councilman's vigorous remarks were uttered during his discussion of an ordinance introduced by Councilman J. A. Couch to require all city-owned automobiles, with the exception of those used by the city physicians, the police and fire departments and Grady hospital, to be held under lock and key at the municipal garage at night and on Sundays.

Councilman Couch had charged that employees are misusing the automobiles of the city and have frequently converted them into pleasure vehicles. Members of council called his attention to an ordinance already on the books requiring the cars with certain exceptions, to be kept in the garage at night and on Sundays. Mr. Couch said the ordinance has been amended until it is practically no ordinance.

A motion was offered to table his ordinance and was adopted. The councilman, however, to request the superintendent of the municipal garage to enforce literal compliance with the ordinance, no longer on the books governing the use of cars.

Autographed Victrola Left by Miss Young On Recent Visit Here

While a visitor in the city last week, Miss Clara Kimball Young, the popular movie-star, was eagerly sought by the city's motorists to recapture the joy of the road. While many were disappointed, there is still an opportunity for some one to see the actress through the Goodhart-Tompkins company.

Miss Young is very partial to the Victrola, an autographing machine, while here the Goodhart-Tompkins company placed one at her disposal in the Georgian Terrace. While in her possession she wrote her autograph upon it, and it is now attracting attention in the company's window display. It is a regular stock model, and the officials of the company declare it will be sold in the regular course of business. First come, first served.

Harris Declares Self Responsible In Bergdoll Case

Washington, May 2.—Major General Peter C. Harris, adjutant general of the army, told a house investigating committee today that he alone was responsible for the release under guard of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, convicted draft dodger, to go out secretly to hunt for a pot of buried gold in the mountains of West Virginia. Bergdoll was permitted to start on the golden chase, but never returned, escaping at Philadelphia, where he had stopped over on his way to the mountains. He was now awaiting sentence for conspiracy to aid him in evading the draft.

Under ordinary circumstances General Harris said he would have acted upon the request himself, but because of the publicity given to the prisoner's escapades, he showed the matter to the chief of staff, the chief of staff, who only signed the order.
